

1

2

3

4

MADAME butterfly.

REVERED AS ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL LOVE STORIES EVER TOLD, THIS TRAGIC TALE LEFT OPERA AUDIENCES SPELLBOUND, NOT TO MENTION FASHION AND DÉCOR EVER-INSPIRED.

5

6

7

1. Culture Clash. These jars, one bright orange, the other porcelain with a hand-painted print, add a touch of the Far East. Orange Lattice Jar & Ginger Jar, priced from $38; cococozy.com. 2. Butterfly Effect. Signifying longevity, the solid brass butterfly hardware lends a serene element to the earthy pecan frame. Papillon Hall Chest, $1,460; lexington.com. 3. Zen Garden Glam. Never failing to excite, Manuel Canovas' chic toile depicts whimsical follies and pavilions exuding a sigh-inducing scene. Pagoda, available upon request; cowtan.com. 4. Flutter Frenzy. This stare-catching clutch is fashioned with multi-colored Swarovski crystals set against gold-finished hardware. Crystal Monarch Butterfly Minaudière, price available upon request; judithleiber.com. 5. Ring Around. With inspiration found in the opulent chateaus of France, designer Jiun Ho translates antique forms into 21st-century stunners. Louis XVI Table, price available upon request; jiunho.com. 6. Linear Theory. Susan Hornbeak-Ortiz blends global flair with modern artistry in this sleek Asian-inspired sofa. Lola Sofa, price available upon request; shinebysho.com. 7. Divine Intermission. Producing some of the most precious porcelain in the world, Herend introduces a contemporary take on tradition with solid color chargers and this koi fish-topped tureen. Chinese Bouquet Blue Tureen and Chargers, $1,285 and $285; herendusa.com.