Jiun Ho IV Launch and Panel Discussion

Interiors magazine and the TOWN showroom are pleased to announce the Denver launch of the Jiun Ho IV furniture collection by celebrated designer Jiun Ho, which features Prima Alpaca textiles by Sandra Jordan. The launch event, which features a panel to benefit the Museum of Contemporary Art Denver (MCA Denver), will take place on Tuesday, April 29, followed by a cocktail party.

The panel will explore how we curate the spaces we live in and what role art plays in our interior environments. The panel will be moderated by Michael Wolleager, Editorial Director of Interiors magazine, and will feature Ho, Jordan and Kimberly Chanin, principal of Chanin Art Advisory.

The new Jiun Ho IV collection takes a romantic journey across South America from the salt flats of Bolivia to the ruins of Machu Picchu and glaciers of Chile. The collection is comprised of 13 pieces including side tables, benches, coffee tables and sumptuous couches, arm and dining chairs swathed in Prima Alpaca upholstery.

The South American themed reception includes music, Pisco Sours and hors d'oeuvres. Kindly RSVP.
