

HOME DECOR

smart and sexy

FASHION AT HOME

HOW THE RUNWAY'S BRIGHTEST
STARS LIVE NOW

VALENTINO'S GLITTERING GALA

THE BEAUTY OF BLACK

FEARLESS ROOMS,
FABULOUS STYLE

GLAMOROUS!

1 THE DAILY SHOW

Chef Mathias Dahlgren has opened his namesake restaurant in the refurbished Grand Hôtel Stockholm, overlooking the bustling harbor. Designed by Ilse Crawford, the space is divided into a food bar and dining room (shown), and the menu changes daily. At S. Blaiseholmshamnen 8. Call 011-46-8-679-35-84; mdghs.com.

2 RAISING THE BAR

The Monkey Bar, a Manhattan fixture since 1927, is celebrating its 80th anniversary with a new Asian-fusion menu and interiors by Stephanie Goto—rest assured, the primate murals remain intact. At 60 E. 54th St. Call 212-838-2600; elyseehotel.com.

3 SURF'S UP

Oahu's star boutique hideaway is the 70-room Hotel Renew, steps from Waikiki Beach. Designer Jiun Ho applied his minimalist rigor to everything from the furnishings to staff uniforms. At 129 Paoakalani Ave. Call 808-687-7715; hotelrenew.com.

4 FANTASY ISLAND

If the cerulean ocean and striking vistas aren't alluring enough, the renovated Little Dix Bay resort on the tiny Caribbean island of Virgin Gorda is now replete with junior suites featuring secluded outdoor showers and hilltop villas with private pools. Call 284-495-5555; littledixbay.com.

4

2: FRANK OUBREMAN; 3: ELI MATHI