

furniture

Barbara Ruckert and William Stuart of Costantini Design

product Paolo standout The designs of 1970s metal maestro Paul Evans inspired this burnished metal coffee table with removable cast-aluminum plate—or customize one with art of your own. costantinidesign.com. circle 416

Marlieke van Rossum
for Avenue Road

product Pukka
standout The solid oak top of this dining table is given individuality via a one-of-a-kind cast-bronze base (choose one, two, or three legs) with natural and polished facets. avenue-road.com. circle 417

Rodolfo Dordoni
for Poliform

product Giò
standout A tribute to Giò Ponti, this side table juxtaposes rational lines and calibrated slants of Spessart oak-finished wood composite with a lacquered-aluminum chest of drawers. poliformusa.com. circle 418

Piero Lissoni
for Cappellini

product Lochness
standout A 2014 cabinet design gets reborn in the form of a sideboard with doors lacquered matte orange or green concealing shelves, drawers, or a chest with sliding tray. cappellini.it. circle 419

Jiun Ho
of Jiun Ho

product Ica
standout The designer celebrates the 15th anniversary of his product line with a monumental shelving unit of flat-sawn oak in a cool ashen finish, punctuated by a pair of cast-bronze rocks. jiunho.com. circle 420