Jiun Ho IV Collection Reveal Party | Editorial.

This past month I was asked by one of my greatest photo friends and mentors Scott Kline, to shoot the reveal party of the amazing Jiun Ho's new design collection. Ho collaborated with textile designer, Sandra Jordan, to create his latest furniture pieces all inspired from his trip around Africa. The party was absolutely smashing - including native drinks, eats, designs and even authentic African music. A big thank you to the creative team at Jiun Ho Designs and the Sandra Jordan Collection for having me and I cannot wait to attend parties in the future! All the best!
